

News from ...

Zephyr Music

Sydney's Leading Printed Music Retailer

Books for Pianists

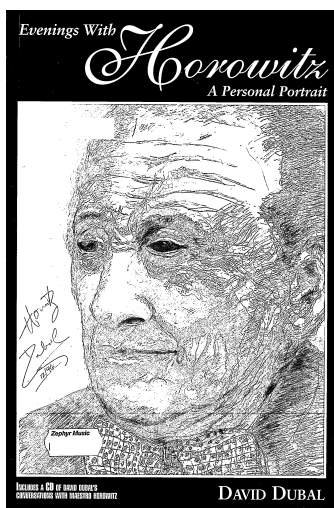

The Art of The Piano: Its Performers, Literature and Recordings by David Dubal

Dubal brings his love of the piano and his expertise as a concert pianist and Juilliard faculty member to this completely revised third edition of his definitive guide to the piano. This is the only all-inclusive and up-to-date book containing profiles of every major pianist and his or her repertoire and recordings. Included also, in alphabetical order by composer, is information about the masterpieces of the literature, solo and concerto, and lists of various and diverse performances. The Art of the Piano is an essential resource for piano teachers, concertgoers, and other devotees of keyboard virtuosity. For the first time the book contains a CD, which includes rare performances.

The Art of The Piano: Its Performers, Literature and Recordings by David Dubal Revised Expanded Edition including CD

Amadeus Press (ISBN 978-1-57467-088-2) .

$55.95 (plus $7.95 delivered)

Evenings with Horowitz: A Personal Portrait by David Dubal

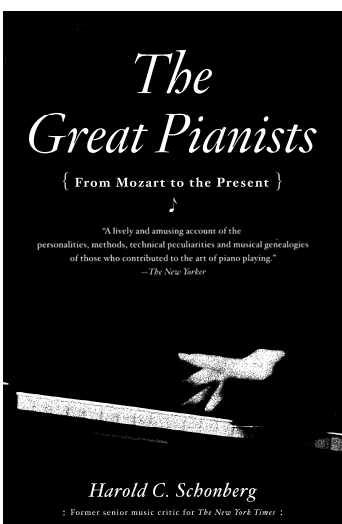

Evenings With Horowitz details a special friendship between two musicians. The author, David Dubal, first came into Horowitz's life when they collaborated on a series of radio interviews which won the coveted Peabody Award. Later, Dubal became a weekly guest at the Horowitz home. The book is a vivid account of their mutual passion for music and the piano. It reflects the struggles and triumphs of the Maestro, a flaming genius who was also insecure and fearful of old age and the loss of his powers. Though a man both tortured and isolated in his last years, he travelled the globe in a succession of unprecedented music triumphs – from Moscow to Tokyo. In this entertaining and accessible memoir, Dubal is seen prodding Horowitz on, offering him new ideas, delighting him with stories of the great composers, pampering him, disagreeing with him, bringing young pianists to learn from him, and always sitting in amazement when Horowitz played for him.

Evenings with Horowitz: A Personal Portrait by David Dubal

Includes CD

Amadeus Press (ISBN 1-57467-086-7)

$39.95 (plus $7.95 delivered)

The Great Pianists: From Mozart to the Present by Harold C. Schonberg

From Mozart's fabulous legato that "flowed like oil" to Beethoven's oceanlike surge, from Clara Schumann's touch "sharp as a pencil sketch" to Rubinstein's volcanic and sensual playing, The Great Pianists brings to life the brilliant, stylish, and sometimes eccentric personalities, methods, and technical peculiarities of history's greatest pianists. Pulitzer Prize-winning (1971) critic (New York Times) and author Harold C. Schonberg presents vivid accounts of the artists' performances, styles, and even their personal lives and quirky characteristics such as Mozart's intense competition with Clementi, Liszt's magnetic effect on women (when he played, ladies flung their jewels on stage), and Gottschalk's persistent nailbiting. Including profiles of Horowitz and Van Cliburn, among others, and chapters detailing the playing and careers of such modern pianists as de Larrocha, Ashkenazy, Gilels, Gould, Brendel, Bolet, Gutierrez, and Watts, The Great Pianists is a comprehensive and fascinating look at legendary performers past and present.

The Great Pianists: From Mozart to the Present by Harold C. Schonberg

Simon & Schuster (ISBN 978-0-671-63837-5)

$29.95 (plus $7.95 delivered)

51 Hume Street CROWS NEST N.S.W. 2065

Tel: (02) 9439-8900 Fax: (02) 9437-4014 e-mail: sales@zephyrmusic.com.au

www.zephyrmusic.com.au